The mission of the Information Sciences Department is:

- To provide in-residence graduate education, as well as a continuum of career-long learning opportunities, in support of defense requirements in the areas of information sciences, systems, and operations.
- To maintain an internationally respected research program in selected areas of information sciences, systems, and operations and to develop research programs in additional areas of information sciences that are required to support graduate education.
- To provide expertise and support to the Department of Defense in all areas of information sciences, systems, and operations.
