COVER NOTE

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It doesn't seem possible this is my last opportunity to write to all of you. The last six months have passed so quickly, and I have enjoyed every minute of serving as your club president. The consistent cooperation of all has made my job very pleasant. The girls on the General Board have been so helpful to me and, I hope, to all of you. My sincere thanks to each and every one of my committee chairmen and the loyal support of our three advisors.

Plans for the ball are complete and I hope to be seeing all of you who can come on October 10th. A great deal of work and planning has gone into this event and I would also like to thank in advance the ball chairman and all her committees for such an outstanding job.

The October monthly meeting will be a fashion show and election for new officers. Environmental Sciences is the Hostess Group for this month and may I urge all of you to come out and vote for the candidate of your choice.

It has been a privilege and an honor to represent this club as president since April, and I want to thank you all for giving me this opportunity to serve. I am confident that the support and cooperation I have received will be continued with the new president.

—Luree Sharrah, President

CLASSMATE QUESTIONS

Have you any questions concerning the Postgraduate School, the Wives Club, the history of the school or any activities offered? Well, just jot them down and send them to Classmate Questions, Box 2565 or 1522 and an authoritative answer will be given in the next edition of The Classmate.

OWC News

This month's OWC activity was held at the P.G. School Pool and our luck was with us, as the sun was shining. A buffet consisting of fried chicken, potato salad, tossed salad and ice cream was enjoyed by all. Following lunch we had a brief water ballet show, headed by Penny Bothwell. Mrs. B. Mussetto drew for door prizes, which consisted of a free beauty appointment and a ticket to the Military Ball. Everyone participated in playing bingo with white elephant prizes or bridge with friends. Engineering Science was the hostess group and the cooperation was wonderful. We were so pleased to have Mrs. Bergin with us, after her long period of illness.

Hope to see everyone next month on October 15 for the Fashion Show and Elections.

Election, Fashion Show Set

Nelma Anderson and Paula Jesberg, nominees for president, head the slate of candidates for election to offices of the OWC Executive Board. The semi-annual election will be held on October 15 in the Ballroom.

For other board offices, the following wives have been nominated: vice-president, Peggy Billings and Joy Brown; corresponding secretary, Lorraine Spadadoni and Ann Thomas; recording secretary, Barbara Ascher and Barbara Langford; and treasurer, Doris Poole and Fran Preston.

Nominations may be made from the floor, under the following provisions as quoted from the By-Laws of the club:

"Nomination from the Floor: Further nominations may be made from the floor at this semi-annual meeting with the previous consent of the nominee and prior approval of the candidate by the nominating committee. Approval must be obtained no later than three days before the semi-annual election meeting."

ARTICLE VI, Sect. 3

Members of the nominating committee are: Penny Bangert, chairman, Tanya D'Armand, Ellie Morrow, Mrs. W. D. Hoot, Mrs. D. R. Schaffer, Mrs. Henry F. Lloyd, Rosalie Hite, Nancy Kellerman, Felicia Carretta, Carla Klein, Julie Lyon, Virginia McKennon, Betty Hughs and Liz Emmett.

Fashion Show a Feature

In addition to the election, the evening will be highlighted by a fashion show to be presented by Berg's. Wigs and hair pieces will be shown through the courtesy of Francine's, and shoes from Martin's Bootery will be worn. At the organ will be Mr. Davis of Davis Organ Studios; Mrs. Ellen Bihler of Berg's will direct the fashion show and commentate. A generous door prize has been donated by Berg's for a lucky winner.

Modeling fashions will be the following wives: Sandra Brooks, Marilyn Daly, Maxine Gimber, Sally Huyser, Mary Anne Kaufman, Rosalie Hite, Joyce Knapp, Cynthia Kraway, Pat Krumm, Pat Loomis, Bobbie McMahan, Norma Nicolls, Faith Robertson, Terry Sickman, Anne Smith, Sylvia Davis, Martha Blanche, Marna Yockey, Susan Yocom and Bobbie Yost.

Assisting the models will be LT James B. Anderson, LCDR Logan Sharrah, LT James Bangert and LT Ron H. Jesberg.

WORKSHOP ON NAVAL CUSTOMS, TRADITIONS TO BE HELD

"If you remove tradition and glamour from the Navy, then your husband is overworked and underpaid."

This thought-provoking statement was made to us recently by Mrs. C. Tod Singleton, wife of Rear Admiral Singleton, USN (Ret.). Mrs. Singleton will lead an OWC-sponsored workshop this month on Naval Customs and Traditions, a course which will touch on such topics as calling, foreign protocol and many points of general interest in service etiquette. Dates set for the workshop are October 12, October 19, and October 26; it will be held at 8 p.m. in the Silk Horse Lounge.

The course has been arranged as a result of interest shown by many wives at the Postgraduate School and a series of talks given last winter by Mrs. Singleton to wives here. She is well qualified to lead such a course, having held workshops here before when her husband was Director of the Engineering School from 1954-'56.

Mrs. Singleton feels that a workshop will serve to ease a situation which has developed because of a change in the services over the years. "Before, young officers often went for first duty to a battleship or large cruiser, and wardrooms were large. The wives were trained in social customs and traditions by 'osmosis', a sort of training-by-contact," she said. Because of the large number of young officers going to schools or ships with small wardrooms, many wives have not been called upon to observe some of the customs of the service, she continued.

"This is perhaps the largest gathering of personnel in the Navy today—right here at Postgraduate School. And for that reason, perhaps for the first time, questions have come up which had not occurred before."

Rear Admiral Singleton and his wife settled on the Monterey Peninsula following his retirement in 1956. There was a special attachment to the area for them; Rear Admiral Singleton had been on a committee of five men appointed to select the site of the Postgraduate School when it was decided to move the school from Annapolis. A 1926 graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Rear Admiral Singleton was a Postgraduate student from 1932-'34 and was the Head of Ordnance and Mathematics Department from 1945-'47.

Mrs. Singleton said that she has always been so proud and delighted to be a part of the Navy. "Husbands need bolstering and inspiration from time to time, and it is the wife's job to fulfill that role," she remarked.

The Singletons have kept busy since his retirement here in Monterey. For several years, Rear Admiral Singleton was the head of the Science and Extension department of the University of California at Berkeley. Following his retirement from that position, both he and Mrs. Singleton have played an active part in community life. He is on many civic committees and is president of the Rancho Agujito Property Owners Association; Mrs. Singleton is a member of the Woman's Club and an active member of the Board of Directors of the Monterey History and Art Association. Until recent years, she was a guiding light in local Girl Scout activities and loved her work with the Scouts.

She looks forward to the forthcoming workshop here at Postgraduate School. All officers wives are invited to attend this unique series of meetings. There will be no charge. For reservations, call Ellie Morrow 375-4901.

Meet Captain and Mrs. Munk

CAPT and Mrs. Maximilian Munk and their daughter, Stephanie.

When CAPT Maximilian Munk called his wife a few months ago to tell her he had earth-shaking news about orders, his words became far more literal than he could have imagined.

For at that time, CAPT Munk was Assistant Chief of Staff for Operations and Plans, Commander Alaskan Sea Frontier, and the family was in Kodiak, Alaska. And on the day that he had called with news of his orders as Commanding Officer, Naval Air Facility, Monterey, his wife was just relating the "earth-shaking" news to friends when the first tremors of the disastrous Alaskan 'quake were felt. It is understandable if CAPT and Mrs. Munk might be a little superstitious in the future about referring to news as earth-shaking!

In discussing their experiences during and immediately following the earthquake, Mrs. Munk remarked that, although it was a tense and terrifying time, she was glad to have experienced it. "One never realizes until a time such as that just how much we depend on each other and how good people can be to each other in a crisis," she said. "A community becomes so close in sharing a common emergency—it gives one a good feeling to know that."

Their tour in Alaska was a pleasant one for the family, perhaps second only to a previous tour in Monterey as their favorite. Versatile and talented Mrs. Munk had numerous activities there, the foremost being her own television program. A former teacher in the John Robert Powers School in New York, Mrs. Munk had a daily exercise and "gab-fest" show on the local Armed Forces television station. It was a family affair, as daughter Carolyn participated also by demonstrating some of the exercises.

In addition to performing on television, Mrs. Munk directed a church choir—an activity which she has enjoyed in several places and which she is continuing here in Monterey. She has assumed the leadership of the Protestant Chapel Choir, and here again, she has her family's help—daughter, Stephanie, 15, is one of the regular members of the choir. Both mother and daughter play the piano and organ, and Mrs. Munk has done some vocal solo work. "I'm particularly proud of this choir here," she stated. "It's an outstanding group of people with which to work."

When the family moved to Monterey, Carolyn stayed behind—she became Mrs.

George Wilson in June and her husband, an ensign in the U.S. Navy Reserve, is on duty at Kodiak. Stephanie will be a sophomore at Santa Catalina this year; she began school there when the family was here from 1953-1956 with CAPT Munk serving a tour on the staff of the USN Postgraduate School.

"We loved it here and have been looking forward to coming back," remarked CAPT Munk. "I guess we're basically small-town people, and Monterey has a small-town atmosphere, yet is cosmopolitan, and the interests here are many and varied."

While they were in this area before, CAPT Munk, who enjoys woodworking as one of several hobbies, undertook the construction of a house in Del Rey Oaks, doing much of the actual building himself. He built the house for Mrs. Munk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Grant, who had come to visit their daughter during the family's stay here and had loved the area so that they decided to move here. They still reside in Del Rey Oaks, another reason that the Munks were delighted to return here." We even like the climate, strange as that may sound to some people," Mrs. Munk laughed.

This creative family has a wide range of many interests, many of which they share as a family. In addition to loving music, the family enjoys bowling together, Stephanie being the star bowler, says CAPT Munk. He has recently taken up golf and is enjoying that sport. In addition, CAPT Munk enjoys photography as a hobby along with his love of woodworking. He states that he has always been avidly interested in aviation and particularly in interesting young boys in aviation. He has formed a number of model airplane clubs in various places, including one here in 1954, and hopes again to take an active part in the club which now is here. "It's a wonderful sport for young boys and young men and a very worthwhile one," he said.

Still another interest is one which CAPT Munk acquired during his last tour in Monterey. "As a result of a visit to the Concours d'Elegance in Pebble Beach, I developed a passion for classic cars and have been enjoying the restoration of an old English Riley," he said.

Mrs. Munk laughingly said that their garage is filled to the ceiling with indications of CAPT Munk's interests, and she hopes he'll make room in there soon for her to have a place for another of her hobbies—that of sculpting. Several of her works are displayed in their quarters on the Postgraduate School grounds. She had modeled in clay before her stay in Kodiak, but it was while there that she began to cast her work in plaster. She is particularly interested in heads and hopes some day to do a series of the different classes of men.

It is with pleasure that we say "welcome back" to this delightful family, just as they have expressed their pleasure at being back once again.

Mrs. Henry F. Lloyd and Mrs. Donald Schaffer discuss ticket sales with Clare Knight, member of the ticket committee.

The "sounds of music" will issue forth loud and clear in Herrmann Hall on October 10, and those attending the Military Ball will be able to fully appreciate the grandeur of the Ballroom—which, incidentally is the largest west of Chicago. A new permanent sound system will be installed in time for the gala annual event.

All tables will be reserved and will be placed around the perimeter of the room, making the band visible to all attending.

The evening gives promise of being one to remember. Special events which will open the Ball are as follows:

2100 Ballroom Opens

2145 Ceremonies

- a. Honor Guard—Presentation of Colors

- b. Champagne toast
- c. Grand March

For those wishing to meet friends before the Ball, the Officers Club is offering a No-Host Cocktail Party from 5-7 p.m. and a prime rib dinner from 7-9 p.m. Following the Ball, the 'O' Club will offer a ham and scrambled eggs breakfast from 1-3 a.m. Cost will be $1.50. Reservations for the dinner and/or the breakfast should be made before October 8 by calling 372-1339.

A professional photographer will be on hand to take full length color pictures of couples for a fee of $3.50 for two 5x7 prints and four wallet-sized prints. For one 8x10 retouched formal color portrait of an officer alone, the price will be $8.00; additional 8x10 portraits will be $7.00 each.

Nursery hours will be extended for the evening from 5:30 p.m. until 3 a.m.; reservations are required. A doorman will be on duty in front of Herrmann Hall.

Bars will be set up in the Admiral's Dining Room and the elevator hallway behind the ballroom.

No details have been overlooked to make this the most glamorous and enjoyable evening of the year at Postgraduate School. Mrs. Marilyn Daly and her committee have worked for months to assure the success of the Military Ball; we are sure that their efforts will provide all with a night to remember.

Talents Pay Off

PG School wives put their talents to work recently when the Monterey County Fair opened—and their efforts paid off.

Betty Haworth (Mrs. Alvin) brought home the blue ribbon in the Home Economics Division of Clothing and Textiles. The tailored wool suit she made and entered in the competition was the result of a sewing course she had taken at MPC.

Third prize in the Stoneware division went to Liz Emmett (Mrs. Richard). She entered a small piece with a pitcher shape. Her idea was to show the raw material of the stone. Liz takes a course in Stoneware at the Sunset School in Carmel.

Leslie Clark (Mrs. Rolf), entering in the Mosaic division, was surprised to see her free-form entry hanging upside down in the Fair exhibit—but was equally shocked to see it had won the second place ribbon!

Leslie said that her entry was a joint effort on the part of her and Rolf. They had made it to decorate the wall of the wardroom of Rolf's ship, the USS Apache, ATS.

LITTLE THEATER PRODUCTION

The Little Theatre of the United States Postgraduate School is well into rehearsals for the forthcoming production, "An Evening with Noel Coward". The series consists of three one act comedies taken from Noel Coward's original production "Tonight at 8:30".

The plays are under the capable direction of Ig Heniford, who recently directed "Tender Trap" at the Studio Theatre in Carmel. Mr. Heniford also directed "A Shot in the Dark" at the Golden Bough in Carmel. Aside from directing, he is giving brief lectures on theatre history at the cast and crew.

Producer of the show is Bill Bain, assisted by John Wilcox.

Mr. Ig Heniford, director of "An Evening with Noel Coward," watches a run-through of one of the plays.

The first play, "Red Peppers," is centered around George and Lily Pepper, a second rate vaudeville team. This play has two musical offerings. In the lead roles are John Sloan and Betty Nesky.

The second play is "Fumed Oak," the tale of Henry Gow (played by Bill Davis) and his plight to relieve himself of pressures inflicted by three overbearing women, portrayed by Lee Davis, Sally Mitter, and Jean Boles.

The final play is "Hands Across the Sea". This comedy, which involves the largest

Relax... It's Time For A Break

The term break we've all been waiting for is just around the corner. If you haven't already made plans, may we offer a few suggestions as to some of the many places within easy driving distance of the Post-graduate School?

For a nice drive and a good spot to picnic, consider the Pinnacles National Park. It's a 75-mile trip, first up to Hollister, then south through San Benito cattle country. The Pinnacles are the remains of a volcanic mountain and rise 500 to 1200 feet against the sky. There are both short and long trails, some leading to the bandit retreats dug in the mountains. You might try driving down the road to the Old Pinnacles Park, as it's usually less populated and just as scenic.

If you want to give the children a thrill, take them to the Riverview Trout Farm off the Carmel Valley Highway. It's a guarantee that they'll catch a fish and have an easy, but fun, time doing it. Picnic tables are also available.

Another short drive for a day's picnic could be to Fremont Peak, a 43-mile trip north. Here, too, you can hike, this time to the top of Fremont Peak. After enjoying the view, hike back down to one of the well-spaced picnic tables and enjoy your lunch. On your way back to Monterey, you might stop at San Juan Bautista to see the historic mission and plaza.

The Hearst Castle is a 94-mile drive down Highway 1 and is a sight to see. But first, check about reservations before making the trip.

For the Children

Two places that are great for the children (and parents have fun, too) are Santa's Village near Santa Cruz and Frontier Village near San Jose.

Santa's Village features unusual rides, picnic areas, a North Pole, and the jolly 'ole man himself. Frontier Village, for all young cowboys, is a family park with a complete Western Village and exciting rides.

For a "Grizzly Bear Route through the Woods," take the Roaring Camp and Big Trees Narrow Gauge Railroad. This unusual feature is north of Santa Cruz and there is a daily train departing hourly. As the train travels through the Redwoods, pick your picnic spot, get off and enjoy your lunch, and then catch the train on the way back.

Trip to the Zoo

The San Francisco Zoo is always a good way to spend the day. The zoo can be reached without going into downtown San Francisco and is right on the water. It features a monkey island, seal pond, enclosed carousel and a playground. There is a children's zoo, and all of the animals are in cages out-of-doors. Either picnic at the zoo, or go on to nearby Golden Gate Park, where you can find any number of interesting activities for a pleasant afternoon.

Not to be overlooked are Big Sur and Point Lobos for the picnickers and campers. Also right in Monterey are County Memorial Park and Whispering Pines, with George Washington Park in Pacific Grove.

For a Weekend

These suggestions have all been one-day junket type trips. But if you can manage it, what would be nicer than a long weekend at Lake Tahoe or Reno. These will require some planning, and if the time is too short now, keep them in mind for the next break.

Another thought is a spot called Tassajara Springs, a hot mineral springs resort in the Santa Lucia Mountains between Carmel Valley and Big Sur. The rates are extremely reasonable and include a cottage, all meals and unlimited use of all facilities.

There are so many places to go near this area; take advantage of the term break and visit one of them.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT PICNIC HELD

The annual International Student Picnic was held last month at the USN Postgraduate School picnic grounds. Sponsored by the combined Altar Guilds of the Protestant and Catholic Chapels of the school, the picnic was attended by approximately 400 people. Each International couple present was sponsored by a couple from either the Protestant or Catholic Chapel and was accompanied by that couple. Highlighting the afternoon's events was a group of folk dances of many nations, presented by local dancers under the direction of Albert A. Daoud, instructor at the Defense Language Institute. Other highlights were the egg-throwing contest, children's races and other games. Pictured above is a part of the large crowd attending.

FROM UNDERWATER TO THE CLOUDS

Tanya D'Armand might well be wondering what there is left to do in the way of exciting pastimes.

And after hearing of some of her interests in the past, we're inclined to wonder right along with Tanya as to what she'll turn to next.

Wife of LT Monte D'Armand and the mother of a four-year-old son, Gregg, Tanya's spirit of fun and enjoyment of life have taken her in many directions — from underwater to the clouds. She seems to have a talent for developing hobbies spontaneously — and as a result, Monte, a student in the Electronics Engineering Curriculum, often finds himself with a new hobby, too.

Take sky-diving, for example. Last year, the D'Armands were sitting in the yard of their home in Marina and watching a group of sky-divers jumping at a near-by air field. "I'll bet that's fun," said Tanya. "Let's try it!"

So a few weeks later, they were members of the Monterey Navy Skydivers and well into the training period for "jumping." Training completed, it was off to the wild blue and Tanya's first jump. She says it took her three days to get over the shock, but it was fun once she recovered. "Actually, on the first jump, I hardly knew what was happening until it was all over. I was so weighted down by all the gear that I had to wear that they had to help me to the door and kinda' push me out!" she laughed.

Although Monte is still participating in the sport, Tanya has "retired" now from jumping. "I'm just an instigator," she said. "It started out as my idea, and now it's Monte's hobby."

Before she was married in 1958, Tanya had a hobby which took her in the other direction — underwater. A native of Clearwater, Fla., she was professional swimmer at the ripe 'ole age of 13. She performed as a mermaid in an underwater ballet at Weeki-Wachee Springs, Fla., working with a hose at depths of fifty to sixty feet. Later, she and two girl friends had their own show at a Clearwater hotel. When she moved to California with her mother, she did a solo water ballet for a motel show near San Francisco. Tanya says she has also retired from swimming, but would like to get back to that sport some day.

Thinking that two such accomplishments were enough for any one woman, we were unprepared for still another unusual hobby. But it seems that Tanya was a member of the Burlingame Police Pistol Club in 1957!

She has also been a florist in her home state of Florida, has enjoyed raising German shepherds, and she has trophies as evidence of her skill in bowling. As a high school student, she participated in archery and track meets and enjoyed hunting and fishing. "My father didn't have a boy—maybe that's why I grew up liking to hunt and fish."

What's the current interest for this versatile couple?

Sports cars have recently captured their enthusiasm, and they are members of the Pebble Beach Sports Car Club. When they purchased an Austin-Healey Sprite a few months back, Tanya did a little "instigating" again, and the two have been attending auto-crosses and look forward to participating in rallies. There are no plans for racing — just rallying, where skill and time are important and not speed.

In addition to serving as treasurer of the OWC during the past six months, Tanya has recently taken a full-time job—that of a secretary for Frank Lockwood Real Estate Agency.

At home, she and Monte are involved in a new hobby—making original Christmas cards. During a visit to the Monterey County Fair, they were both intrigued with a machine which produced "original abstracts"—so Monte went home and built a facsimile of the machine. As a result, they will be sending their own unique cards to friends this year.

All in all, things stay pretty busy and interesting at the D'Armand home. With her delightful sense of humor, Tanya says she thinks most of the excitement is over—"After all, what's left to top jumping?"

BAKED-IN-SHORTCAKE

Sift 1 cup sifted flour,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder and  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt; add  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup milk, 1 egg and 2 tablespoons melted butter; beat 2 minutes. Turn into a greased 8x8x2 baking pan. Top with  $1\frac{1}{2}$  cups sliced strawberries; sprinkle with Crumble Topper. Bake in moderate oven, 375°, about 35 minutes or till done. Cut in 9 squares. Serve warm with ice cream.

CRUMBLE TOPPER

Combine  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup flour and  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar; cut in  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup butter till mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup chopped walnuts. Unusual and always a hit!

Tanya is pictured at the OWC election last spring when she was elected treasurer of the organization.

SUBMARINERS HAVE SHIPWRECK PARTY

Submarine officers at the Postgraduate School and their wives held their first party of the year last month at the NAF Officers Club. The affair took the form of a "Shipwreck Party" and was attended by over seventy persons. At left, Scott Edwards plays the guitar and Dick Emmett the bongos for an impromptu sing-a-long at the party. At right, members of the "stranded" group pause to swap a few sea-stories.

CMA4 . . . Wives recently spent a delightfully entertaining evening at the home of Mrs. Bill Franklin. Katie was joined by Mrs. Mike Hardesty (Connie) as her co-hostess. Besides dessert and coffee, Katie provided a pictorial view of her recent trip to Europe and the Mediterranean in particular.

At this same coffee, baby cups were presented to Mrs. Jack Pyle and Mrs. B. J. Keen, mothers of recent additions to the infant set.

Although the skies were overcast, spirits were bright as the wives and children of the section met for a picnic lunch and fun outing at Dennis the Menace Park.

Bridge has continued to keep our minds occupied and has always been enjoyable; however, a welcome change was wrought by Mrs. Bill Moye, who held the bi-monthly bridge in her La Mesa home. Betty's enthusiastic co-hostess was Mrs. Bob Lane (Edith). Their tempting delectable dainties outbid the bridge decks for attention.

Houseguests have continued to brighten the waning days of summer. LCDR and Mrs. Dick Treat have recently entertained Phil Treat of Alameda.

The Treats have also enjoyed a reunion with good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Schneider of Visalia, Calif. Darleen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Contreras of San Diego, have arrived to enjoy a visit on the Peninsula.

LCDR and Mrs. Bill Kidd welcomed Mrs. H. L. Kid of Eyota, Minn. She arrived with her grandson, Michael Kidd, who had been spending summer vacation in Minnesota.

LCDR and Mrs. Randy Billings entertained Grace Barolet of California, Maryland, as a recent houseguest. Peggy Billings is changing the tide of visiting by doing some herself. She has gone to San Diego with Gloria McNulty for a week of visits with local friends.

Mrs. Joe Ausley (Linda) and children have recently returned from a happy trip to Arkansas and Mississippi for a family reunion with grandparents, relatives and friends.

After-bowling gatherings have proved to be much fun, as evidenced by the groups at the homes of LCDR and Mrs. Noble Davis, LT and Mrs. Bill Dwyer and LCDR and Mrs. Jerry Abercrombie, on past Friday evenings.

A gala section party combined with a bowling awards dinner was held at the Presidio Officers Club. The trophies were quite impressive and were awarded to the following teams and bowlers: First and foremost to mention was the Most Improved Player awards which went to Mrs. Warren Bay (Judy) and to LT Will King and his "good Ol' Blue"!

First place was won by the Fiftys, comprised of LT and Mrs. Bill Dwyer and LT and Mrs. Will King. Second place was taken by the Fivers, LT and Mrs. John McKinney and LT and Mrs. Jerry Anderson. Third place team was the Alley Kats, LT and Mrs. Wayne Wright and LT and Mrs. Dale Iverson.

CAA3 . . . Wives were delighted by the luncheon held at the Sable Knight. Co-hostesses were Katy Perryman and Jeri Mulholland. Everyone enjoyed the lovely cake made and decorated by Jeri.

Susie Yocum was hostess for section bridge and treated the girls to her famous Filipino dishes of delicious food. Betty Neal was surprised to find that it was not just a bridge game, but a baby shower. She was presented with an electric heating baby dish.

Bob Abels, section leader, made CDR and the section helped him celebrate the event at a grand party held at the NAF Officers' Club.

CAA4 . . . Newly arrived on the scene the section has quickly filled its social calender. Members enjoyed a 'Get Acquainted Party' at the Officers' Club. Frances Campbell, the wife of the section advisor, gave a coffee, at which the wives "talked business."

Peggy Bozell and Lou Jackets co-hosted the first section bridge at Peggy's home.

CMB3 . . . Couples enjoyed dinner and singing 'round the piano bar at Leavell's in Carmel Valley. Hosts for the evening were John Briggs and Gordon Benz.

Bernice Gilmore was bridge hostess for three tables from the section. Eleanor Briggs and Pat Harre have also been bridge hostesses recently.

The section is sorry to hear that they will be losing another member. Gordon and Dixie Benz are anxiously awaiting new orders. Gordon completes school at the end of this term — five months ahead of schedule.

DAA3 . . . wives enjoyed a delightful luncheon at the Ginza. Co-hostesses were Natalie Service and Diane Vollaie.

Braving the wilds of Big Basin State Park over the weekend were eight families. Packing their camping equipment and setting up tent-keeping in the redwoods were the Goodsells, Borgstroms, Bullmans, Cecils, Metcalfs, Klings, O'Briens and Services. A lively time was had! The children on hand totaled twenty four and the young ones' unanimous opinion was that the outing ended too soon.

On September 16th Phyllis Goodsell entertained at her home with a brunch for the wives, who enjoyed a relaxing time out in the Valley after getting school lunches packed and children off to school.

CAB3 . . . Martha Witcher and Valerie Caston were co-hostesses for a wives coffee in Martha's home. Val Caston displayed her culinary ability with an assortment of taste-tempting pastries.

CAB3 officers and wives hosted DMA3 and CAA3 at a Luau at Fort Ord Officers' Club. The Island mood was set by hundreds of begonias arranged throughout the bar and dining areas. Mr. Paptiste and his authentic Hawaiian Orchestra provided musical entertainment throughout the meal. One hundred guests in attendance donned Island attire.

Mrs. David Hughes and Mrs. John Shong added to the authenticity of the evening with their renditions of Island dances.

One of the highlights of the entertainment was the trio of LCDR Richard Daly, LCDR Robert Wheeler and LCDR Charles Melville doing some fancy plate work!

Joyce Edwards gave a bridge party at her La Mesa home for the wives. Special guests at the affair were Mrs. Mildred Sullivan, mother of Marilyn Patterson and Mrs. Lu Bainter of San Diego, mother of Claire Knight. Marilyn Patterson was also hostess to CAB3 bridge players.

CMC3 . . . The Gobi Inn in Carmel was the setting for a very delightful luncheon. Jackie Davis and Rita Kingsbury were the hostesses.

DMB3 . . . Bring your own steaks, was the word passed for the 'Hail and Farewell' dinner, held at Darlene and Warren Ackerman's home in Pebble Beach. Hostesses were Glaniece Roberts and Darlene Askerman. Farewell was said to LCDR Kubert Lass who is returning to civilian life. Welcomed as the new DMB3 section advisor and his wife, were CDR and Mrs. Hoot.

Paula and John Gillis entertained house-guest Margaret Grant from Owensbury, Kentucky. Barbara and Jim Ellis entertained house guests Pat and John Crain from Capistrano Beach, California.

MNY4 . . . The first social gathering, a buffet luncheon for the members of the section, was held in August. It was arranged by LT Marjorie Yeoman, one of the two feminine members of the section. Guests included Prof. Ecker, Chairman of the Management Department, and CDR McGee and Prof. Senger, section advisors.

In September the wives became acquainted at a coffee held in the home of Mary Nunnally, wife of the section leader. Mary Emma Wilson was co-hostess.

A section cocktail party was held in the Trident Room of the Officers Club. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kleppinger of Chicago, parents of Linda Ainsworth; and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Volman of Los Angeles, sister and brother-in-law of Ann Becker.

MNZ4 . . . Dorothy McVeigh was hostess at a "get-acquainted" tea in August. This was the first social gathering of the section wives and plans were discussed for future activities.

The following week the first weekly bridge party was held at Gerry Davidson's home, also in La Mesa.

AAZ4 . . . Dianne Button's "get-acquainted" and "plan activities" coffee-dessert in August was the section wives' first opportunity to meet one another. Margaret Boshoven and Helen Bloch planned a luncheon in September at June Simpson's Restaurant in Carmel.

Darby Davis was hostess for the section's two tables of bridge in August; the group met again at Dianne Button's home the first part of September.

In early September the husbands and wives met in the Trident Room of Herrmann Hall for a cocktail party and heavy hors d'oeuvres.

APY3 . . . Wives of this predominantly second-year section got reacquainted, or met for the first time, after the summer's reshuffling. The occasion was Lil Eckert's coffee where activities were also planned.

Bridge was popular in August and September with three tables bidding at Millie Smith's and four at Ellen Sloan's.

Muffled music, singing and related sounds of a good time issued from the John Sloan residence when the section met for its first couples' party.

Barb Bartocci and Jeannette Brumwell planned the dessert-coffee at Barb's home.

ASX3 . . . Bob and Billie Lou Mircheff were hosts on two occasions. Their home was the scene of the section's get-acquainted party, and Billie Lou gave a coffee for the wives.

BAZ3 . . . Tacos, a specialty of the house at the Dinky and Ham Byng's, were a hit at the section party they hosted.

AAZ3 . . . The first social affair of the section wives was an enjoyable evening coffee at the home of Natalie Newbury. Later in the month Natalie also hosted a bridge party for the wives.

ACX4 . . . Section wives attended a "get-acquainted" coffee at the home of Flora Searcy in Carmel. Plans were made for further coffee and bridge get-togethers.

Pat and Ray Yenchko enjoyed having Pat's mother, Mrs. Mary Adams from Miami, Fla., spend some time with them in August when Pat had her first baby.

Bickhart enjoyed a visit from Don's sisters and their families from Santa Clara. Hal and Kay Matthias entertained Hal's family from Wisconsin and Kay's family from Oregon a few weeks ago.

RZB3 . . . Helen McDaniel was in charge of the August wives' social event which was dinner at The Shutters. Helen made attractive favors for each wife—brightly colored geraniums in white pots. John and Martha Dachos had a visit from her brother, CAPT Gordon E. Williams, an Air Force fighter pilot who had just returned from Viet Nam.

WCA3 . . . Ellie Morrow was counselor for her church group's pack trip in the High Sierras. Later six girls were weekend guests of the Morrrows for the reunion of the group. A "get-acquainted" coffee was given for the wives by the section leader's wife, Shirley Beers. Sally Russell hosted an evening of bridge at her home. Sally's sister, Kathi Stephenson, is making her home with Pete and Sally while attending MPC this year.

Jim and Ruth Poole entertained seven 12th Company classmates who were here for the USNA '59 West Coast Reunion. Out of town guests were Al and Allen Ruth and Wayne Rickman. Bob and Lillian Sparkes and children joined friends on a Labor Day Weekend camping trip to The Pinnacles National Monument.

WGA3 . . . A coffee given by Norma Kettlewell in August offered a chance for all the wives in the reorganized section to meet one another. The Silk Horse Lounge was the scene of a "get-acquainted" cocktail party for the couples of the section. Although Charles Goren wasn't in attendance at Nina Bishop's bridge party, there were many other fine players.

WPA3 . . . The wives of the section gathered at Marge Johnson's home for a morning coffee late in August. During the coffee, plans were made for forthcoming section events.

WMA3 . . . The first social event for the section was a cocktail party at NAF where we were joined by WMA2. Guests of the sections, who helped in making it an enjoyable evening, were CDR and Mrs. Donald R. Schaffer, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Kinney, Dr. and Mrs. Newton W. Buerger and Dr. and Mrs. John R. Barbara and Martin Combs had as their houseguest Miss Ruth Cody from Bayonne, N. J. Kathy Jorgenson, a visitor from Guam, spent several weeks with Marge and Dick Pittenger.

WUA3 . . . Mickey Voyer entertained the wives in August with a brunch. Mickey joined Margaret Mozier as hostesses for a coffee for the wives of both sections WUA3 and WXA3. Mary Ann and Mike Hayes are enjoying a visit with Mary Ann's mother, Mrs. T. Edward Ruddy of Grandforks, N. Dak. A dinner was enjoyed by section couples at the Spindrift in August.

WXA3 . . . In August, a get-together for all the wives of this newly formed section was hosted by Margaret Mozier at her home in Marina. A "get-acquainted" pot luck party was given for husbands and wives of the section at the home of Anita and Hank Hallas.

WGX4 . . . The LCDR Dave Gordons, section leader, hosted the first event for the section which was a steak "cook-out." Later in the month, Alice Gordon gave a coffee in her home for the purpose of outlining future section functions. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hughes are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Sallie and Bill Pitt. The Hughes' trip, which originated from Massachusetts, took four weeks, in which time they toured many states and Canada.

WGB3 . . . Section leader's wife, Tad Thompson, hosted the first coffee of the new term at her Marina home. The Trident Room was the location for the first section cocktail party at which new and old friends met. The wives enjoyed an evening of bridge at Peggy May's and joining in the fun was Mrs. Edward E. Alexander.

EIZ2 . . . The first coffee of the new school year was held in late August at Mary Jardine's. The group plans to have a coffee, bridge, and a party each month.

On September 12 Fred and Mary Jardine hosted a party honoring our newlyweds, Ed and Ellie Browne.

EBW4 . . . A get-acquainted coffee was given by Maureen Schreiner for the section wives. With only seven members, the wives nonetheless have big plans for all sorts of activities.

Visiting Judy and Bill Dietrich for two weeks were Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hart of Orlando, Fla. For a harried visit try what Judy and Doug McKay did . . . a drive to San Diego and back over the Labor Day weekend.

Pat Lannis and her two children left Monterey for New Orleans to wait for the next Lannis addition.

EBY4 . . . The section held a get-acquainted party at Marcia and Monty Knapp's with Prof. and Mrs. Crittenden, Prof. and Mrs. Hanson, and CDR and Mrs. Shimmel as special guests.

Louise Heasley was the hostess at a morning coffee party.

EBZ4 . . . The first social gathering of new section wives was held at Pauline Eibert's, while the Phillips' held the first section party which included CDR and Mrs. Shimmel, LCDR and Mrs. Byrd, and Prof. and Mrs. Sheingold.

Dr. and Mrs. Frey entertained at a cocktail party in their Pebble Beach home. Lola Hotard and Virginia Robinson co-hosted the first bridge.

Hip, hip, hooray! A pat on the back to our weathermen for finally having picked a beautiful day for our annual picnic. The cold, foggy day of last September was just a thing of the past, as the welcome sun and delicious steaks were the basis of this year's success. See men, it wasn't impossible after all!

Heartiest congratulations to our newest

LCDR, Cliff Samples. He and Maryann entertained at their home at a wetting-down pizza party. The evening started out with a bang when an error in tapping the beer keg brought about the eruption of "Old Faithful, II." That was one shower not forecast at map discussion! The soaking of our men, however, could not dampen the spirit of a wonderful party.

NAVAL ENGINEERING

Editor: Kathleen Lamay

Reporters: Billie Southern, Brenda Webster, Laurie Simmons, Pat Christensen, Kathleen Lamay

NGZ4 . . . A "Get-Acquainted" coffee for the wives of NGZ4 was held in early August in the home of Billie Southern, La Mesa Village. Being new to the area, all were eager to share information about the area and tentative plans were discussed for future activities.

An evening surprise party was held in September honoring "Bunny" Stumbo, who recently gave birth to a daughter. Hostess for the occasion was Beth Knorr of Marina. A gift from the section wives was presented to Miss Lauren Gail Stumbo, who was present for the occasion.

The bachelors of NGZ4 treated the "khaki-sackers," as they described the married clan, to a steak and beer party held in the home of Billie and Ed Southern during the Labor Day weekend. Hosts for the gathering were the LTjgs Mike Breslin, "Chris" Christopher, and Denny DuBois. After dinner the group relaxed and sang to the music of Stan Stumbo and his guitar.

NGH3 . . . The month of September was off to a good start for the wives of NGH3 with a coffee hosted by Christina Clifford in the Copper Cup Room.

Joyce and Steve McGanka and Brenda and Ed Webster were busy Labor Day weekend attending the USNA Class of '59 West Coast Reunion. Activities included a cocktail party, golf tournament, bowling and a dinner-dance. A bottle of champagne was awarded to the winners of each tournament. A gift of champagne was also given to two classmates who traveled from Seattle, Wash., and San Diego, Calif.

NHA3 . . . Coffee, laughs, and "good intellectual discussion" got this section's happenings under way at Luree Sharrah's—at least for the wives.

Guests galore for many of us this past month. Donna and Stu Ball welcomed Donna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Radocy, from Bentley, Alberta, Canada. The '59 USNA Class Reunion brought Allen and Ellen Ruth down from Seattle, Wash., to party and visit with Louise and Richard Davies. Despite a hectic party schedule they managed to squeeze in a quick tour of the Peninsula sights. Jerome Eric Dumlao (Bernice and Max's new 7 lb. 10 oz. edition) was visited by his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Racquelsao, from Los Angeles.

Talk about guests . . . Luree and Logan Sharrah had perpetual open house this past month. First weekend guests—Logan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sharrah from Fresno; later, Luree's school friend, Carol Ryan, all the way from Silver Springs, Md.; and for a two week stay, Luree's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Fowler, also from Silver Springs.

One of us wives flew the coop and poor Joe Koch was a bachelor for a month. Ellen took to the skies with Jody to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Ginns of Philadelphia, and Joe's parents, COL and Mrs. J. W. Koch.

NLA3 - NGL3 . . . The fall term has gotten off to a pleasant start for Sections NLA3 and NGL3. The first gathering in August was a wives coffee at the Hidden Village with Liz Emmett as hostess. A couples party in the form of a steak barbecue and buffet was hosted by Susie and Harry Konkel at their Del Monte Forest home. Almost all of the two sections attended the Engineering Department Welcome Aboard cocktail party in the Copper Cup Room and had a most enjoyable evening.

Cindy Vaughan was hostess for our first

Editor: Nancy Saunders

Reporters: Sammy Campbell, Leslie Clark, Kay Cornell, Jenny Galbraith, Libba Hill, Diane Roche, Marie Ross, Eleanor Swanson

SBX4 . . . The section wives met in August for a Get-Acquainted coffee at Libba Hill's. Anna Miller asked for volunteers for committees, and for ideas on other activities. A start was made on keeping busy and out of the way by playing bridge at Linda Deffet's home.

Linda and Tom Deffet went to San Francisco to play in a Regional Bridge Tournament, along with Esther and John Vance who went to observe the pros.

SCW4 . . . Mrs. Pauline Nelson, section leader's wife, held a get-acquainted coffee at her home during August.

Wives gathered at the home of Eleanor Parker for a potluck dinner early during September.

SAY4 . . . Wayne and Margaret Beech hosted the section's opening party of the year by having cocktails at their home which was a fine opportunity for the section families to meet. The party adjourned to the Bali Room for dinner.

Charles Witt and Mike Brown tried their luck at deer hunting in the Los Padres Forest this month. They saw plenty of deer and fired a few shots, but did not bring home any trophies. They plan to try soon again, with undaunted enthusiasm.

SMC4a . . . Wives found the old adage, "The more the merrier," doesn't always hold true. Only five wives attended the August luncheon held at Pine Inn and all agreed they thoroughly enjoyed it.

Bonnie Trumbauer and Chris Berghauer hosted this month's bridge session.

Husbands and wives were graciously entertained at a party given by Dr. Fry, section counselor, and Mrs. Fry. Carolyn and Craig Campbell also provided merriment for husbands and wives at a party held in their home during August.

SAZ4 . . . A get-acquainted and organizational coffee was held at Beth Rogers' home during August for the section wives.

Committees were formed and schedules planned for next month's activities. All wives present unanimously agreed to take full advantage of the many and varied activities offered by the USNPGS ALL WIVES CLUB.

SMD4a . . . The section gathered at the Studio Restaurant for a most enjoyable evening combining good food and entertainment in the form of "Once Upon a Mattress." The occasion provided a final opportunity to meet with "old" SMD4a section members who have now moved into other courses of study.

SDV4 . . . A get-acquainted steak cookout and party was a pleasant ending to the first week of classes in August. This enjoyable evening was hosted by section leader LCDR Don Mattson at his home in Marina.

Later in the month, the section again gathered at the Mattson residence for steak from the grill at a rousing "BYOB" party. Able hosts for this event were our bachelors, LT Dick Casey and LT Jim Simon.

WETTING THE STRIPE

LCDR and Mrs. Jim Cameron, Section WGA3, and LCDR and Mrs. Dick Morrow, Section WCA3, hosted a wetting down party at the Presidio Officers Club in September. Among the many guests entertained were CDR and Mrs. Donald R. Schaffer and Dick's former shipmate, LT and Mrs. Stan Strickland of the DLS, Monterey.

* * *

John Cockey, RZA3 Section leader, hosted his wetting down party at home recently. Jeanne and John were toasted by friends, section members and CDR and Mrs. Donald R. Schaffer.

* * *

Two new Coast Guard Lieutenants, Dave Freese and Bob Ingalls, were hosts at a wetting down party for EBY4 at the Freese's home.

* * *

The home of Cliff and Mary Ann Samples was the setting of a wetting down party in celebration of Cliff's promotion to LCDR. A plentiful supply of beer and pizza was on hand, as their friends from Fleet Numerical offered hearty congratulations.

* * *

* * *

CDR and Mrs. Barclay Woods entertained seventy guests at a wetting down party at the Presidio in August. Among the guests were the fellow section members of ROO3b and their wives.

* * *

MMM3 and other friends helped Terry and Mary Anne McCloskey celebrate Terry's promotion to LT at his wetting down party held at the Presidio Officers' Club.

A for Alibi

This is Exam time—to be followed, without a doubt, by student complaints and excuses. To save time of all concerned, the following check-off sheet is offered from a collection of the past years.

WHY MY GRADE SHOULD BE RAISED

- 1) There must be a mistake somewhere.
- 2) At no time before the exam did I receive an official warning, therefore, relying upon the school, I merely maintained my grade. Surely this should have been a satisfactory grade.
- 3) I know many members of the class who do not work as hard as I do and who got a better grade. I am recognized as a good student among my classmates—you just ask any one of them.
- 4) I was not well at the time of the examination.
- 5) This mark ruined my prospect of getting a scholarship (degree, etc.).
- 6) This mark grieved my mother (or father, wife, etc.) whose pride I am.
- 7) This is the only course in which I received a poor grade.
- 8) It is not the higher mark I seek; I care nothing for marks, I think marks are wicked and I disapprove of them. However, this pernicious system of which I am the victim requires marks for achieving success and, therefore, I seek a higher grade.
- 9) Several people around me copied from my paper during the examination, yet they received higher marks than I did. Surely this is not fair.
- 10) I live far away from the school and I feel that this extra travel should have been considered when you gave me my grade.
- 11) I have studied this subject from the broad philosophical viewpoint and, therefore, I was unable to answer your technical catch-questions.
- 12) The quests were ambiguous and therefore, my answers should be graded according to the reasonable interpretations that I made of your questions.
- 13) The examination was unfair and unfairly distributed over the subject.
- 14) I have to work after school and at nights; therefore I should be given a break.
- 15) The reason I did not do better is because I am very honest. I do not wish to say anything against any other member of the class.
- 16) My mind always goes blank during an examination.
- 17) I would have done much better if I had taken the examination given to the student next to me.
- 18) Conditions in the room were not conducive to concentration.
- 19) I am left-handed, and the seats all have right-hand arms.

Anything Goes In Fashion

How lucky can a woman be?

She can dress to please herself this season. Fashion is not evolving around one look, silhouette or color. Bareness, fur, black and a lot of inconsistency seem to be the key-notes to fashion this year. Shaping moves to the body in one outfit and away from it in the next. About the only thing that seems to be settled is the height of the hemline. Daytime lengths seek a level around the knee. Night lengths vary with cocktail, mid-calf to ankle, and clearing the floor to floorsweeping.

Postgraduate School wives who are shopping for ball gowns will find a few surprises. Fabrics usually reserved for tailored clothes are making a big impact in floor length evening dresses. Wools turn up frequently, checks, plaids and paisleys have all been glittered and beaded in their transition from day fabrics gone night.

The rich elegant favorites are still here—shiny satins, ribbon and sequined laces, cloques and jacquards. Crepes are big in both formal and informal wear. Velvet, which hasn't scored in years, is really big this season.

More than line, color or design, fabric is the important factor and puts a new zing in fashion. There is a turn away from the fluffy bulky look of last season.

Suits come with cropped jaunty jackets or the walking length variety — many suits have their own matching coats. All outfits are completed with companion blouses.

Dresses reflect indecision — they go from

Xenia Maganiaris

LCDR Spiros Maganiaris and his wife, Xenia, of Greece, are not new to the United States. This is their third time over here, LCDR Maganiaris having served previous tours of duty at Chicago and Long Beach.

Spiros is a student in Mechanical Engineering. He took Electric/Electronic Engineering in 1952 in Chicago and was Electric/Electronic Engineering Officer, in 1959, of a destroyer that was transferred from the American to the Greek Navy. It was during those six months in Long Beach that Spiros and Xenia visited the famous Disneyland, Hollywood, Beverly Hills and San Diego. Now they are enjoying Northern California.

Spiros and Xenia recently celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary and have two children—Figi, 4, and Steve, 3.

Xenia graduated from the Athens Teachers Academy and served as a teacher for eight years in Athens. Not speaking English when she arrived in Monterey a year ago, Xenia attended Monterey Peninsula College where she studied, and now she speaks English fluently. She is currently studying Sociology.

Her hobbies are embroidery, ceramics and cooking. Xenia organized a ceramic class of school children in Greece and was selected to represent the school at an Exposition in Switzerland, in 1961. She enjoys going to the Co-op Nursery at the Fairgrounds, as she is interested in the methods used in caring for the children.

Xenia treasures things that are old and therefore is an antique enthusiast; she is a proud possessor of many interesting pieces.

This talented wife enjoys sharing recipes for Greek dishes which were taught to her by her mother.

Flying Club Growing Rapidly

Navy flying clubs have been in existence since 1959, when the Chief of Naval Operations decided to promote such clubs in the interest of "welfare, recreation and morale". Under certain specified restrictions, these clubs function as instrumentalities of the Federal Government, legally organized, and completely self-supporting. Active duty military and certain civilian personnel and their dependents are eligible for membership on a voluntary basis. Clubs may purchase and operate any type civilian aircraft, or the Navy will make available surplus T-34's on an indefinite loan basis with the understanding that the club will modify the aircraft to meet Federal Air Regulations.

The Monterey Navy Flying Club was organized during the early part of 1963 and has grown in membership and expanded facilities ever since. They now have in operation 2 T-34's, which have been completely modified into "civilian" type airplanes. Also available at substantial savings are other 2 and 4 place civilian rental aircraft.

The present membership role is composed for the most part of students at the Postgraduate School, but also includes: instructors at the Postgraduate School, employees from the Monterey airport (tower personnel), employees from Salinas Flight Service Station, Army personnel from Fort Ord and the Presidio, and personnel from the Naval Air Facility (including the Commanding Officer). Although various backgrounds are evident, all members have a common goal, to LEARN and ENJOY private flying at the most reasonable cost available. The

These T-34's are operated by the Monterey Navy Flying Club. They have been completely modified into "civilian" type aircraft.

Club exists to fulfill this goal.

How many of you wives (or non-aviator type husbands) have often wondered of this mysterious "call of the wild blue yonder" that prompts pilots from every walk of life to fly at every opportunity? As a member of the Club, you can not only enjoy the thrills of flying, but can actually obtain your own private pilot's license (a few of our members are licensed FAA instructor pilots)! Club insurance allows not only unrestricted choice of passengers, but student instruction as well. A license obtained through the Club (using Club aircraft and member instructors) will cost less than half as much as normal civilian rates, and your qualification in the T-34 will be the envy of most of your civilian friends, as the T-34 is a very high performance aircraft by civilian standards.

The Club is naturally a non-profit organization, and operating costs are shared by the membership. An initiation fee of $30 is charged all new members, and the monthly dues are $3 if the member attends the monthly membership meetings. The hourly cost to fly the T-34 is $8.50 which includes insurance, fuel, oil, etc.

Anyone desiring more information is welcome to attend the membership meeting, which is held the second Tuesday of each month at the Postgraduate School, or better yet, contact one of the Club Officers listed below.

HINTS FOR HALLOWEEN

A simple, yet festive and appropriate table decoration can be a small hollowed-out pumpkin, filled with water and holding some bright chrysanthemums. Or cut pumpkin placemats out of orange felt or an oil-cloth material. A "witches' tree" is easily made by trimming a manzita branch with tiny paper black cats and witches' hats.

Let the children share in the fun of preparing for the Trick or Treating by making pumpkin cookies—a simple way is to roll out the refrigerated cookie dough and cut into pumpkin shapes, using candies to make the features of a jack-o'-lantern. With apples so plentiful, why not try your hand at making taffy apples—it's easier than it looks and the whole family could share in the fun.

MPC EVENTS OPEN TO PUBLIC

A full program of lectures and films has been planned for the fall semester at Monterey Peninsula College, according to John G. Schaub, MPC evening division dean.

Opening the Evening Lecture Series Thursday, October 22, will be Eric Fromm, psychologist-psychoanalyst author of "The Art of Loving." Dr. Fromm will speak on "The Psychological and Spiritual Problems of Affluence."

Harry S. Ashmore, editor of the Little Rock, Ark., Gazette at the time of the first integration crisis, will visit the local campus October 26-30 as "lecturer in residence," lecturing in the Armory on his final evening on "Problems of the Public Dialogue."

Harry Golden, newspaperman author of such best-sellers as "Only in America" and "For Two Cents Plain," will address an Armory audience Friday, November 20.

Vance Packard, author of "The Status Seekers," "The Hidden Persuaders," "The Naked Society" and other books on "popular" sociology, is due to speak at MPC Friday, January 15.

The MPC Theater Arts Group has planned one film monthly for the fall semester, with each to run twice in an evening—at 7 and 9 p.m.—in the college music hall.

The schedule includes: "Professor Hannibal" (Hungarian), September 25; "The Bailiff" (Japanese), October 16; "The Lady from Shanghai" (Orson Welles production), November 19; "The Ballet of Romeo and Juliet" (Russian), December 18; and "The Given Word" (Brazilian), January 22.

All events will be open to the public. Procedures for obtaining tickets will be announced at a later date, Schaub said.

WESTERN SALAD BOWL

8 small cooked artichokes, 1 small head lettuce, 1 bunch Romaine, 2 green onions, 1/4 cup salad oil, 2 tomatoes, 2 tablespoons garlic-flavored wine vinegar, Salt, Pepper, 1 hard-cooked egg.

To cook artichokes, wash thoroughly, trim stems and remove tough outer leaves. Cut and discard 1 inch from tops. Put trimmed artichokes in boiling water with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cover closely and cook 15 to 20 minutes. Drain upside down and chill. Break salad greens in bite-sized pieces into salad bowl. Add halved artichokes and thinly sliced onion. Sprinkle with oil and toss lightly until greens are thoroughly coated. Add tomato wedges, sprinkle with vinegar and salt and pepper to taste. Toss again. Top with wedges or slices of egg. Serves 8.

Anyone wishing to substitute is always welcome. Just call one of the officers of the league and have her place your name on the list.

Follow the progress of the teams in each league each month in the Classmate.

TUESDAY NIGHT STONE ROLLERS

The Tuesday Night Stone Rollers League began their new session in early September at the USNPGS Lanes. At that time we bowled for averages and elected new officers. The following week, averages established, we were divided into teams. The teams were named and captains were selected:

"Alley Cats," Betty Bird
"Fickled Femmes," Lee Krueger
"Yellow Devils," Genny Lou Galbo
"Kurly Q's," Eleanor Briggs
"Tipsters," Eleanor Dunham
"Alley Ooops!," Marilyn Pries

High game for the night bowled by Betty Grandjean was 189. Maxine O'Reilly and Eleanor Briggs tied for most spares in one game—6 each.

Anyone interested in bowling as a substitute in this league, please call Joyce Vezina, 375-4797.

WEDNESDAY EVENING LEAGUE

The Wednesday Evening Bowling League at the Postgraduate School got under way on September 2 with the election of officers. Dona Mitchell was elected president with Arley Jane Furminger as vice president. Secretarial duties will be handled by Marie Siebeking and Regina Mitchell is our treasurer. The Rules Committee is composed of Rhea Reid, Helen Black and Sally Graessle.

FRIDAY NIGHT MIXED LEAGUE

The Friday Night Mixed League started the fall session early in September at the USNPGS Lanes.

After a brief meeting, officers were elected:

President, Jim Law
Vice President, Jacque Thompson
Treasurer, Bettie Difiore
Bill Tirschfield was elected secretary at the close of the spring session.

Everyone seemed in good spirits and anxious to get started as the teams then bowled three games and established averages.

Anyone interested in substituting for this league, call Bill Tirschfield, 394-2074.

When the Study Lamp Is Out . . .

Call it a hobby or just a fringe benefit in life that makes the living more enjoyable—but "play-after-work" is a part of society.

Lt. Ian Crichton USN, Captain William Tirschfield, USMC, and Lt. John Wilcox, USN, are representative of the many PG School students who are doing more than just attending classes and studying while in the Monterey community.

Drummer with Highlanders

Lt. Crichton, member of the First Salinas Valley Highlanders finds time in his schedule to play the snare drum with this bagpipes and drums group, producing music of his native Scotland.

Ian's interest in Scottish music began, most appropriately, in Scotland, where he and friends organized a Bagpipes and Drums Band. Later, in Cleveland, Ohio, he became associated with the Cleveland Drum and Bugle Corps. Ian first learned of the Highlanders after a chance meeting with the group's Pipe Major in a Carmel restaurant. Since that meeting, Ian has been playing with the Salinas "marchers" and admits, "It takes lots of practice."

The '57 graduate of the Naval Academy is here studying Air-Ocean Environment. He came to Monterey from duty aboard the USS Albacore. Ian's wife Susan and sons, James and William, are usually in the crowd whenever Lt. Crichton and fellow performers appear wearing their full Highland Regalia of the MacKenzie Plaid.

Football Official

Officiating local high school and service football games is a time-consuming extracurricular activity for Captain William Tirschfield.

Various clinics and classes are held preceding each season, including practice scrimmages. New rules must be learned and revisions to old ones committed to memory. Then come exams, and finally one becomes qualified to officiate. Since Bill officiates both at Ford Ord, where colleges rules are used, and at high schools, he must have knowledge of two different sets of rules.

Bill's interest in sports was evident during his stay at the Naval Academy, where he participated in intramural football and varsity tennis, and since then he has added golf and bowling to his activities.

Bill's family, wife Pat and children Judi and Joey, attend many games and enjoy seeing Daddy working on the field.

From the Stage to Scouts . . .

Lt. Wilcox's outside interests take him far from the football field to the stage.

John began as a sound man in a PG School Little Theater production last fall and portrayed his first role on the stage in December. Now he is assistant producer for three upcoming plays and has convinced his wife Betty to join the thespians.

In addition to John's Little Theater participation, he is Committee Chairman for the La Mesa Cub Scout Troop. Three sons, John, Robert and Jeffery are this Electrical Engineering student's main reason for Scout work. Three years ago when his eldest son was of Scout age, John began taking field trips with the boys and now serves as chairman for the eight dens sponsored by the La Mesa School PTA.

John said proudly, "We just signed up 62 boys for the coming year." Scouting on this level does not involve overnight excursions, but it is the prelude to scouting and also provides instruction in family life. John plans to continue both his Scout leading and his personal interest in theater. "As for scouting, that will grow with my sons."

Whether it be the snare drum, an official's whistle or the Cub Scout's Handbook, a symbol of life's fringe benefits may be found in many PG students' homes for those after-the-study-lamp's-out hours.
