Early NPS Web Pages

A very early web page – the NPS home page from 1996.

And that's it. As you can see, it displays fine in today's Internet Explorer. And, if you read the fine print, you can see where to find it: <http://web.archive.org> Since 1996, this nonprofit organization has been scanning the web and saving all they could find. Many (but not all) of the links from this page are still accessible.
