MEDIA ADVISORY

UPCOMING NPS EVENTS

Memorial Day Concert

When: Monday, May 27 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Where: Colton Hall, City of Monterey

The Naval Postgraduate School is co-sponsoring this free outdoor concert by the Monterey Bay Symphony to pay tribute to America's servicemen and women. The symphony will observe a National Moment of Remembrance at 3 p.m. to those who have died in service to our nation.

Dedication - Wayne Meyer Institute of Systems Engineering

When: Tuesday, May 28 3 p.m./4 p.m.

Where: King Hall, NPS/Bullard Hall, NPS

NPS will dedicate its Institute of Systems Engineering in honor of Rear Adm. Wayne Meyer, an alumnus of the school who is considered the "father of Aegis," the first multi-mission combat system built using principles of systems engineering and development. A series of speeches by dignitaries will begin at 3 p.m. in King Hall followed by an unveiling of the Institute's sign at approximately 4 p.m. Media are welcome. Contact John Sanders at 656-3346 to be placed on an access list.

"Victory on the Potomac" A Presentation by Author James Locher

When: Wednesday, May 29 3 p.m.

Where: King Hall, NPS

James Locher will discuss his new book, "Victory on the Potomac," which chronicles the development of legislation that unified the Armed Services in the mid-1980's. Former Senator Sam Nunn said, "Locher's analysis...will fascinate anyone who has an interest in how government works, and his understanding of the stakes in military reorganization will make clear why this legislative victory meant so much to American military capability."

Breaking News

A pioneering videogame suite produced for the U.S. Army by the Naval Postgraduate School's Modeling, Virtual Environments and Simulation Institute (MOVES) was unveiled today at the Electronic Entertainment Exposition (E3) in Los Angeles. Called "America's Army," the videogame combines entertainment technology with advanced military simulations to provide a realistic and comprehensive look at Army life. For perspective on the game, see today's story in the Los Angeles Times, "Army's New Message to Attract Recruits: Uncle 'Sim' Wants You" at
