RESUME OF RICHARD S. MILLER

Richard S. Miller, Lieutenant Colonel, United States Army, was born in Port Arthur, Texas, in 1939. He received a Bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from the Virginia Military Institute in 1960, and a Master of Science degree in Operations Analysis from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1972.

Following graduation from the Virginia Military Institute, he entered the U.S. Army as an Infantry Officer. His assignments prior to attending NPS included company and brigade level command and staff positions in the United States and Korea.

After graduation from the Naval Postgraduate School, he served as a military Operations Research analyst in the office of Secretary of Defense and the office of Secretary of the Army. Prior to his assignment on the faculty of NPS, he taught undergraduate mathematics at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point.

His military schooling includes The Infantry Officer's Career Course, and the Command and General Staff College.

LTC Miller joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California, in June 1978. He is teaching in the Operations Research Department.
