RESUME OF JAMES VINCENT SANDERS

James Sanders was born in Twinsburg, Ohio, in 1932. He attended Kent State University at Kent, Ohio, where he majored in physics. He received the degree of Bachelor of Science in June, 1954.

Graduate study followed at Cornell where he majored in experimental physics and minored in theoretical physics and aeronautical engineering. He received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in June, 1961. His research, under the direction of Professor Edwin L. Resler, Jr., consisted of the optical study of acoustic phenomena.

In March, 1961, he joined the faculty of the Department of Physics and Chemistry at the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California.

His current research is concerned with fluid mechanics, finite-amplitude acoustics, and underwater acoustics.
