

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive
DSpace Repository

History of Naval Postgraduate School

Biographies

1988-12

Resume of Moshe E. Zviran, 1988-12

Zviran, Moshe E.

Monterey, California: Naval Postgraduate School

<https://hdl.handle.net/10945/54204>

This publication is a work of the U.S. Government as defined in Title 17, United States Code, Section 101. Copyright protection is not available for this work in the United States.

Downloaded from NPS Archive: Calhoun

Calhoun is the Naval Postgraduate School's public access digital repository for research materials and institutional publications created by the NPS community. Calhoun is named for Professor of Mathematics Guy K. Calhoun, NPS's first appointed -- and published -- scholarly author.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

RESUME OF MOSHE E. ZVIRAN

Moshe E. Zviran was born in 1955 in Tel Aviv, Israel. He received his B.Sc in Mathematics and Computer Science and M.Sc and Ph.D in Information Systems in 1979, 1982 and 1988, respectively, from Tel Aviv University, Israel.

Dr. Zviran was an instructor at the Leon Racadati Graduate School of Business Administration and at the Sackler School of Medicine, both in Tel Aviv University. He has also a number of years of experience in various positions in information systems in private and public organizations and served as a consultant for a number of organizations in the area of information systems.

Dr. Zviran joined NPS in August 1988, as an Assistant Professor in the department of Administrative Sciences. He is teaching various courses in Information Systems, including Decision Support Systems, Information Systems Management, etc. His research interests include information systems planning, development and management of information systems, economics of computers, decision support systems and information systems in health care and medicine.