groups, to have authentic portraits in the style of the last century, a true re-creation of how things might have been. Joe's research and diligence have resulted in a unique and wonderful experience for friends and loved ones, as the sepia toning, the careful costuming and posing, the authentic framing combine to create a completely new concept, arising from the blend of the old and the new.

NEW NPS DEAN OF RESEARCH

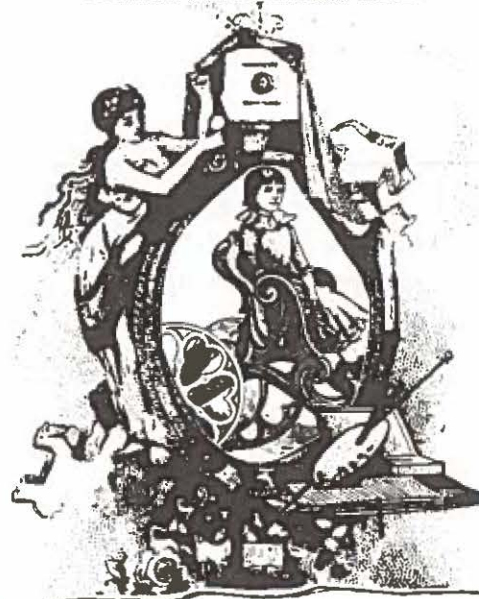

Robert R. Fossum has been named dean of research at the Naval Postgraduate school by RADM. Isham Linder, NPS superintendent. Dr. Fossum comes to NPS from the Electromagnetic Systems Laboratories in Sunnyvale, CA, where he was vice president and general manager.

The new dean received his Bachelor's Degree in mathematics in 1951 from the University of Idaho, and his Master's Degree in the same subject from the University of Oregon in 1956. After working for Sylvania's Electronic Defense Laboratories in Mountain View, CA from 1956 to 1967, he returned to graduate studies and received a Ph.D. in statistics from Oregon State University in 1969. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi.

Dr. Fossum will be accompanied to the Monterey area by his wife, Jerri, and their son Bob. Two daughters, Jane and Sue, are away at college.
