

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive
DSpace Repository

NPS Scholarship

Publications

2001-04-28

Around the World in Four Hours - International Day 2001

Monterey, California. Naval Postgraduate School

<https://hdl.handle.net/10945/49733>

This publication is a work of the U.S. Government as defined in Title 17, United States Code, Section 101. Copyright protection is not available for this work in the United States.

Downloaded from NPS Archive: Calhoun

Calhoun is the Naval Postgraduate School's public access digital repository for research materials and institutional publications created by the NPS community. Calhoun is named for Professor of Mathematics Guy K. Calhoun, NPS's first appointed -- and published -- scholarly author.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

AROUND THE WORLD IN FOUR HOURS!

Naval Postgraduate School International Day 2001

April 28, 2001

12-4pm

It's time again for International Day at the Naval Postgraduate School!

When: Saturday, April 28 from 12 to 4 p.m.

Where: Located at the school's campus quadrangle and lawn area.

You can join this celebration of food and culture with over 30 countries represented from around the world.

International Day has been around since the early 1960s.

Started by some of NPS's first foreign delegations, the idea to re-create an atmosphere of love of homeland for the homesick students, sparked the idea of sharing cultures with the community. And so International Day has grown into a community tradition that brings the world to Monterey. It has become one of the most popular happenings on the Peninsula, with more than 3,000 who attend each year.

Entertainment is provided by the NPS International Students Club family and their friends, many of whom will be wearing native dress. Part of the fun is to come dressed in your own favorite country's folkloric costume. Bring your appetites because there will be a smorgasbord to delight your taste buds. Natives prepare all foods. Or you can just sit back and enjoy watching the parade of colorful nations. However you spell fun, there will be something special for everyone at this spectacular family event.

The admission is always free. Food tickets can be purchased for $1 each.

International Day is a rain or shine event.

Please call the International Programs Office at 656-2186 or visit the International Committee on the web, at www.intlcomm.org