

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive
DSpace Repository

---

NPS Scholarship

Publications

---

2013-03-04

NPS Alumni Hall of Fame (archived)

Monterey, California, Naval Postgraduate School

---

<https://hdl.handle.net/10945/36808>

---

This publication is a work of the U.S. Government as defined in Title 17, United States Code, Section 101. Copyright protection is not available for this work in the United States.

Downloaded from NPS Archive: Calhoun

Calhoun is the Naval Postgraduate School's public access digital repository for research materials and institutional publications created by the NPS community. Calhoun is named for Professor of Mathematics Guy K. Calhoun, NPS's first appointed -- and published -- scholarly author.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

NPS Alumni

Hall of Fame
Distinguished Alumni
Notable Graduates
Alumni Online Community
Library Access

Hall of Fame

"The NPS Hall of Fame recognizes the accomplishments of NPS's most distinguished alumni and friends who, through the attainment of positions at the highest levels of public service, have made the greatest contributions to society, their nations and to the Naval Postgraduate School."

Vice Admiral Thomas J. Hughes, USN (Ret)
Posthumously Inducted December 3, 2010
Vice Admiral Hughes served in the U.S. Navy for 43 years. His final assignment was serving as Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Logistics). After retirement from the U.S. Navy, served as the President/CEO of Navy Federal Credit Union, the largest credit union in the U.S. He was also a Distinguished Visiting Professor and Conrad Chair for Financial Management at NPS Graduate School of Business and Public Policy. Hughes earned a Master of Science degree in Operations Analysis from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1962.

Vice Admiral Pat Tracey, USN (Ret)
Inducted December 3, 2010
Vice Admiral Tracey, former Chief of Naval Education and Training/Director of Training, was the first female to achieve the rank of Vice Admiral in the U.S. Navy and while Active Duty, was the Highest ranking female Naval Officer in the U.S. Navy. She is now Vice President of Industry Development, Department of Defense for HP Enterprises. In 1980, Tracey Graduated with Distinction from the Naval Postgraduate School with a Master of Science degree in Operations Research.

Admiral Mike Mullen, CJCS, USN
Inducted August 11, 2009
Admiral Michael Glenn Mullen was appointed the 17th Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) on October 1, 2007. Mullen previously served as the Navy's 28th Chief of Naval Operations from July 22, 2005 to September 29, 2007. In 1985, Mullen graduated from the Naval Postgraduate School with a Master of Science degree in Operations Research.

The Honorable Dan Albert
Inducted February 23, 2007
The Honorable Dan Albert was the mayor of the city of Monterey from 1986-2006. He is a dedicated visionary who helped establish the Naval Postgraduate School as a cornerstone of higher education, and is recognized for his leadership in community efforts to support DoD activities in Monterey, CA.

Admiral James D. Watkins, USN (Ret.)
Inducted April 20, 2005
Admiral James D. Watkins, Naval Academy Class of 1949, is a 1958 graduate of the Naval Postgraduate School, with a master's degrees in Mechanical Engineering. He served equally aboard surface ships and submarines. President Reagan selected Admiral Watkins to become the 22nd Chief of Naval Operations on June 30, 1982, capping a distinguished career spanning nearly four decades.

Admiral T. Joseph Lopez, USN (Ret)
Inducted December 3, 2010
Admiral Lopez served in the U.S. for 40 years. He served as the Commander in Chief, U.S. Naval Forces, Europe and Commander in Chief, Allied Forces, Southern Europe and the Former Commander of NATO Peace Implementation Forces in Bosnia-Herzegovina. After a 40 year distinguished career, Admiral Lopez served for 10 years on the NPS Board of Advisors. Lopez graduated from the Naval Postgraduate School with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Government (International Relations) in 1972 and a Master of Science degree in Management in 1973.

General Apichart Penkitti, Permanent Secretary for Defence, Thailand
Inducted July 30, 2010
General Apichart Penkitti was appointed Permanent Secretary for Defence of Thailand on October 1, 2008. He has had an exemplary military and academic career and has fostered a close relationship between the Naval Postgraduate School and Thailand. In 1975, General Apichart graduated from the Naval Postgraduate School with a Master of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering.

General Michael Hagee, USMC (Ret.)
Inducted May 23, 2009
General Michael W. Hagee was appointed the 33rd Commandant of the United States Marine Corps from 2003-2006. Hagee retired from the Marine Corps on January 1, 2007. He holds a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering from the Naval Postgraduate School and a Master of Arts in National Security and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College.

Admiral Wayne E. Meyer, USN (Ret.)
Inducted February 23, 2006
(April 21, 1926-September 1, 2009)
Admiral Wayne E. Meyer, who graduated from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1960 with a bachelor of science, was presented the prestigious medal by NPS President RDML Wells during the ceremony. Meyer is the founder of real time shipboard systems engineering where 60 ships now employ his AEGIS technology. "I am completely stunned and surprised," said Meyer of his induction.

General John A. Gordon, USAF (Ret.)
Inducted September 16, 2004
General John A. Gordon, USAF (Ret.), a veteran of 32 years in the Air Force, served in the White House as the President's Homeland Security Advisor from June 2003 to June 2004. He holds an BS from the University of Missouri, a MS from the Naval Postgraduate School, and an MBA from New Mexico Highlands University.

Vice Admiral Arthur K. Cebrowski, USN

Admiral Henry H. Mauz, Jr., USN (Ret.)
Inducted November 19, 2003
Admiral Henry Mauz, Jr. retired from active duty in 1994 as Commander-in-Chief, U.S. Atlantic Fleet. Mauz's education includes the Naval Academy, Naval War College, and an undergraduate degree in electrical engineering from the Naval Postgraduate School. He is the recipient of many prestigious awards, including the Distinguished Service Medal, the Defense Superior Service Medal, and three awards of the Navy Achievement Medal.

(Ret.)
Inducted January 13, 2003
(August 12, 1942–November 12, 2005)
Vice Admiral Cebrowski holds a B.S. in Mathematics from Villanova University and a 1973 Master's with Distinction in Computer Systems Management from the Naval Postgraduate School. He retired from the Navy in 2001 after serving as President of the Naval War College and is currently Director, Office of Force Transformation, Office of the United States Secretary of Defense.

Professor Lui Pao Chuen
Inducted March 28, 2002
Professor Chuen (NPS '73) holds a Masters of Science degree in Operations Research from the Naval Postgraduate School. Professor Chuen has modernized the Singapore military, establishing an operations analysis organization within the Ministry of Defense that focuses on information technology, systems engineering, and operations research. He also established a cooperative education program between the NPS and the National University of Singapore.

The Honorable James G. Roche
Inducted September 27, 2001
The Honorable James G. Roche was appointed the 20th Secretary of the United States Air Force in 2001. He is responsible for the Air Force's functioning and efficiency, the formulation of its policies and programs, and the implementation of decisions and instructions of the President of the United States and the Secretary of Defense. Secretary Roche holds a MS from the Naval Postgraduate School and a Doctorate from Harvard's Graduate School of Business Administration.

The Honorable Thomas E. White
Inducted September 27, 2001
Mr. White's career in the U.S. Army included two tours in Vietnam and service as Commander, 1st Squadron, 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment; Commander, 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, V Corps; and Executive Assistant to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff. He Graduated with Distinction from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1974 with a Master's degree in Operations Research. Mr. White served as the 18th Secretary of the Army from May 2001 to April 2003.

Admiral Stanley Arthur, USN (Ret.)
Inducted 2 December 2011
Admiral Arthur entered the U.S. Navy through the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) Program at Miami University and was commissioned in June 1957. He later earned a second bachelor's degree in aeronautical engineering from NPS. Admiral Arthur has held numerous high-level positions to include Commander U.S. SEVENTH Fleet and Commander, U.S. Naval Forces Central Command for Operations Desert Shield/Desert Storm, and Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

Dr. Jack London
Inducted 2 December 2011
Dr. London is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy (1959) and the Naval Postgraduate School (1967), where he earned, respectively, a Bachelor of Science in naval engineering and a Master of Science in operations research. He holds a doctorate in business administration conferred "with distinction" from George Washington University (1971). During his 12 years of active duty as a regular officer (1959–1971) during the Cold War London initially served as a naval aviator and carrier pilot. Later, at the height of the Vietnam War, he served as Aide and Administrative Assistant to the Vice Chief of the Naval Material Command, Department of the Navy (1969–70). Dr. London currently serves as Executive Chairman for CACI.

Admiral Eric T. Olson, USN, (Ret.)
Inducted November 30, 2012
Admiral Olson was the first Navy SEAL ever to be appointed to the three-star and four-star rank and served in the highest levels of leadership as the Eight Commander, U.S. Special Operations Command (USSOCOM) and as the former Assistant Deputy to the Chief of Naval Operations (Plans, Policy, and Operations). He earned a Master of Arts in National Security Affairs from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1985.

Mr. Walt Havenstein
Inducted November 30, 2012
A retired U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Colonel, Mr. Havenstein served in several roles in the private sector to include: Chief Executive Officer of Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC), President of BAE Systems, Inc. and as Vice President of Strategic Systems Divisions at Raytheon. His leadership in the defense industry was revolutionary and resulted in the transformation of information technology and network communications for defense and intelligence applications. He earned a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1977.

Contacts | Employment | Copyright / Accessibility / Section 508 | Privacy Policy | FOIA | Intranet Access

This is an official U.S. Navy website.

All information contained herein has been approved for release by the NPS Public Affairs Officer.
Page Last Updated: Mar 4, 2013 2:02:50 PM | Contact the Webmaster